EXPLANATORY STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 102 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013 READ WITH RULE 22 (1) OF THE COMPANIES (MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION) RULES, 2014

1. Retail industry in India has significant challenges in short to medium term and it is estimated that growth will remain muted in medium term. The industry is in evolution stage in India, there is an element of high risk of any option getting unviable in future and even in medium term returns would not be high. The advent of e-commerce has further complicated the retail business leading to lower margins and increased competition from e-tailers which are adopting predatory pricing technique to gain market share.

Further, Jubilant Agri and Consumer Products Limited's present operating level of the Retail Business is not economical and to further expand the business to achieve economies of scale it would require heavy capital investment. In view of the industry outlook which is not very healthy, the Management decided that it would not be prudent to continue to invest in retail business which has high risk and low return in short to medium term. On the contrary, it would be prudent to focus on other businesses of JACPL which are comparatively more stable and have better potential of earnings, as this would help in improving its overall profitability.

2. In view of the above, Jubilant Agri and Consumer Products Limited ("JACPL"), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, proposes to transfer its undertaking engaged in the business of operating retail hypermarket stores in Bengaluru, India consisting inter alia of the retail hypermarket stores operated by JACPL under the brand name "Total Super Store" located in Bengaluru along with certain specified assets and liabilities including dedicated employees and contracts relating to such undertaking (collectively the "Business Undertaking") to Aditya Birla Retail Limited (the "Buyer"). The Board of Directors of the Company has approved such sale by JACPL at its meeting on May 12, 2015 subject to necessary approvals, including approval of the shareholders of the Company.
3. The Business Undertaking will be transferred as a going concern, by means of a 'slump sale' (as defined under Section 2(42C) of the Income Tax Act, 1961), for a lump sum consideration of Rs. 69,92,00,000 (Rupees Sixty Nine Crores Ninety Two Lakhs), which is to be discharged by the Buyer subject to such adjustments in a manner and on such terms and conditions as has been agreed in a business transfer agreement executed among JACPL, the Buyer and the Company (the "Business Transfer Agreement"). In terms of the Business Transfer Agreement, JACPL and the Company (as the promoter and parent of JACPL) have provided various covenants, representations, warranties and indemnities to the Buyer in relation to the Business Undertaking, and the Company has undertaken to procure performance by JACPL of its obligations.

4. The members are also informed that JACPL is a “material non-listed subsidiary” of the Company, as defined under Clause 49 (V) (G) of the equity listing agreement(s) executed between the Company and the BSE Limited and the National Stock Exchange of India Limited (the “Listing Agreements”). It is proposed that the approval of the shareholders of the Company through a special resolution be sought for the sale of the Business Undertaking by JACPL to the Buyer under Clause 49 (V) (G) and applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The sale of the Business Undertaking to the Buyer is subject to the approvals, consents, permissions and sanctions as may be deemed necessary (including the approval of the Competition Commission of India being obtained by the Buyer)
5. None of the directors or key managerial personnel of the Company and their respective relatives, except to the extent of their Directorship in Jubilant Agri and Consumer Products Limited, is directly or indirectly financially or otherwise, interested in this resolution.
