Annexure – 1

Details relating to the outstanding litigations against Jubilant Agri and Consumer Products Limited, Wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Company as required under Regulation 30 of SEBI Listing Regulations read with Circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD-PoD-1/P/CIR2023/123 dated July 13, 2023:

Sr. No.	Brief Details of Litigation	Name	Court/tribunal/agency where litigation is filed	Expected financial implications, if any, due to compensation, penalty, etc.	Amount
1.	During the FY 1990-91 and FY 1991-92, Visen Industries Ltd (“Plaintiff”) procured Vam from Jubilant for a total value of INR 72.43 Lakh. Subsequently, this Vam was utilized in the manufacturing process, facilitating the production and sale of the Plaintiff’s product, specifically “Visicol – MB,” which commanded a total value of INR 315 lakh. In the month of February 1992, the Plaintiff received grievances from its customers. These grievances pertained to the nature of the product sold by the Plaintiff, with allegations that it deviated from its purported classification as a copolymer, instead resembling a plasticized homopolymer. Plaintiff alleged that due to the two letters written by Jubilant to the plaintiff’s main customers, namely Swadeshi and Natraj, these complaints were coming. The plaintiff contends that Jubilant tried to circumvent the plaintiff and directly supply its products to the plaintiff’s customers. Matter is under adjudication.	M/s.
